Is City Treasury Intact

Council Should Have Books Checked Over in the Interest of the Citizens.

Now that it is generally understood that ex-Mayor Knox has shaken the dust of Wetaskiwin from his feet and has been seen in the city for the last time, the leading citizens are of the opinion that a thorough and independent audit of all the city's books, vouchers and papers should be made with the least possible delay.

As is well known there are many rumors in circulation reflecting on the honesty of the late mayor and the manner in which he handled the city's money. It is not surprising that the city looks somewhat suspicious. At the initial meeting of the council, he appointed himself chairman of the finance committee, and there are accounts and vouchers officially passed through his hands. This action was something most unusual as there are few instances, if any, on record in Canada, where the mayor is chairman of the finance committee. The late mayor, in his zealousness, might have taken this important office, the better to keep in closest touch with the work of the different departments, or he might have had some other motive in mind.

We do not suspect that there is a shortage in the city treasury, but if by chance there should be one now is the time to find where it is and the amount. Before the newly elected mayor and aldermen assume the duties and responsibilities of office they should demand that an audit be made, not only for their own protection, but in the interests of the citizens whom they represent.

COMMUNICATION

(We do not necessarily endorse the sentiments of this or any other correspondent appearing under this heading.)

To The Editor of The Times.

Dear Sir—
With at least two cities of the State taking in the line of civil affairs, and the stretch of the civic investigation of Lethbridge polluting the air, and the chaos of the alleged jangle in Calgary, not yet ended, Wetaskiwin has fortunately speaking raised her eye, self-righteously to heaven and expressed thanks that we are not as other cities—not even as neighbor Edmonton. But is not this fancied sense of goodness the narcotic dream of a people lulled to a lethargic stupor by the cry of peace by the faithful watchmen of civic affairs who cry peace, peace, when there is no peace. When an employee of official office, public health, or police, with the handing of other people's affairs and money, deserts his post and leaves no trace of his going, steps are immediately taken to fill his position with a competent man and a strict investigation of his affairs and accounts is at once inaugurated.

In Wetaskiwin civic duties how different the attitude. Cowed into silence submission by the browbeating tactics of the official and his short tempered henchmen, our aldermen now present the spectacle of a bunch of sheep, deprived of the leadership of the bell wether, and batted about by the yearling buck, stand dazed and silent except for an occasional stamp of the foot when an outsider approaches, and a monotonous bawling, which serves only to draw upon themselves the ridicule and contempt of those of stronger character.

And now before elections are on for filling the vacancy of mayor, it seems proper that a few questions should be answered by those who are supposed to have been safe guarding the interests of the people. Do they know that finances of the city are as they should be? Why is there a persistent rumor on the street that there is no money for extensions of water service already sanctioned by the council? Where has the balance of the money gone that Alderman Compton says has not been spent on the streets? Who is responsible for the spending of money on the streets, the chairman of the committee or an outsider?

Thanking you for this space, I remain
Yours truly
Man-of-the-Street.

Labor Day

Monday Next—being Labor Day is a Dominion Holiday. All places of business in the city will be closed.

What might easily have been a fatal shooting accident occurred near the city on Monday evening. Two parties of hunters were in quest of ducks being on opposite sides of a slough. As a flock of ducks flew over, a member of the party shot quickly, not being aware that no other hunters were within range. One of the shots penetrated the ear of Van Omer, one struck him on the cheek bone and glanced off, while two others lodged in his right hand. Fortunately no serious damage was done, but it was a very narrow escape.

HON. CHARLES STEWART ADDRESSES PUBLIC MEETING

On Rural Municipalities Act at Castor

Owing to the heavy rain that fell almost all day the 24th and which continued during the early part of the evening, it was feared that no meeting would be held in the Opera House as had been billed. But a good crowd attended at eight o'clock and Mr. Stewart had the pleasure of addressing one of the largest meetings he has attended during his tour of the constituencies.

The speaker went very fully into the reason that had prompted the Govt. to bring in the measure which has been adopted, and explained that the Local Improvement Councils in two annual conventions had asked the Govt. to frame such legislation as made it possible for Municipalities to be formed.

This had been done and the Act as adopted last session made it optional with the councils whether to form themselves into municipalities or to remain with the same form of local government as at present. There was nothing compulsory in the Act, it required a vote of the rate payers which must be a majority of the resident electors, to warrant the Govt. in establishing the Municipality. The whole Province had been divided into districts as nearly as possible comprised of areas equalling eighteen miles square this had been deemed necessary that uniformity might be had all over the Province, but unless the area contained a population of at least one person to each square mile that is 324 persons no municipality could be formed.

It would also be understood that in order to make this formation possible it required that when once municipalities were formed it would throw existing local improvement districts out of shape and as he was expected to see a hundred or more would be accepted by the first of the year, all local districts would be disbanded and much would be continued as larger local improvement districts of the same area that is eighteen miles square.

An audit would be made of the books and debts and credits adjusted accordingly. The feature of the Municipalities Act was that it provided for a greater measure of self government, and took out of the hands of the central authority a major portion of control. The same privilege was exercised by all cities and towns, it provided a way whereby assistance from the Government would be supplemented by power to raise money on the credit of the Municipality and that make possible a better and more satisfactory system of road building, which unless this was done, would continue to be the greatest detriment to the development of the country.

It was not the intention of the Government to cease granting assistance, it provided a means whereby on the recommendation of the Rate and Council, expenditures would be made on a more satisfactory basis, the same or greater effort would be made by the Govt. to build permanent roads and bridges so that the present generation would reap a direct benefit, rather than work entirely for those who would inherit improvements without incurring some obligation. In the matter of a Council planning the 'municipality into debt' the speaker pointed out that all money by laws must have the support of two thirds of the electors voting thereon, and that no elector could vote unless he had paid his taxes due, and unless he was a resident of the municipality further more such proposed debentures must be sanctioned by the Minister. The Act provided for the regulation of matters pertaining to public health, weigh scales, hawkers and peddlers, nuisances, incumbrances of roads, pound districts and herd laws control of licenses cruelty to animals, etc. all of which annually were sources of revenue to the province and which would become so to the municipalities as all fines were public monies of the municipalities.

Should the council deem it expedient to make an outlay of more than $500.00 in any one year for purchase of land for some purpose, or for the erection of any public building or for any other permanent improvement, a vote of two thirds of the voters thereon would be required. In the matter of cultivated lands provision was made whereby a rebate of taxes could be made on cultivated land to much as 25 per cent and it was proposed at the next session to increase this to 50 per cent so that the speculator would be forced to either cultivate his holdings or pay a surtax by reason of value added to his land through other, thrift.

The minister went also into the Hall provisions of the Act which had

DYSPEPSIA MADE HIM MISERABLE

Suffered Agony Until "Fruit-a-Lives" Cured Him

Hundreds of people gladly testify to the wonderful curative powers of the famous fruit medicine, "Fruit-a-Lives." To those now suffering with Indigestion, Dyspepsia or other Stomach Troubles, this letter of Mr. Stirling, the well known real estate operator of Western Ontario, shows the way to a speedy and certain cure.

CHICAGO, Ont., Aug. 15th, 1917
"Fruit-a-Lives" was so beneficial to me when I suffered with distressing Dyspepsia, that I wish to inform you of their satisfactory results.

Although I have, in the past, suffered agony with Dyspepsia, I am now in perfect health. "Fruit-a-Lives" accomplished the desired result.

N. C. STIRLING.
"Fruit-a-Lives" will cure every trace of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Bloating, Pain After Eating, Biliousness and Constipation.

"Fruit-a-Lives" is the only remedy in the world made of fruit juices and vegetable essences.

It is a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 50c. All dealers get sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-Lives Limited, Ontario.

been drafted on the recommendation of a committee of the U.P.A. working in conjunction with the Minister. The Minister did not claim that the Act was without flaw or above just criticism, he expected that as progress was made amendments would have to be adopted. The Govt. had attempted to frame such legislation as was deemed expedient at this time and he hoped the people would assist his Department in working out the best solution of local self government in conformity with the needs of the country.

VAST AREA UNTOUCHED

A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Stewart at the close of the meeting which had been made questions asked from time to time—very interesting by reason of various Castor Advance.

Although these Western Provinces have made rapid progress in agricultural development, there is less than 18,000,000 acres under the various grains. The vastness of the area still untouched, however, is almost beyond comprehension when we consider that the total of land under the various crops of wheat, barley and other cereals is estimated at 37,000,000 acres. Notwithstanding the small area of cultivated wheat land, in comparison with the possible whole, the wheat crop of the Canadian West is admitted to be one of the leading factors in the world's markets for breadstuffs. It is the best hard spring wheat in the world, and therefore the most valuable for mixing with the inferior wheats. The present season is one of great promise, and, if fulfilled, the Canadian West will have for shipment out of the country a greater quantity than ever before.

The growing of wheat in the prairie provinces has not been without its drawbacks, and its disappointments, but in the years it has been carried on, it may be remembered with comfort that there has never been a total failure of crop. There are elements of changes in wheat growing as there are in every other business, but the farmer who has cultivated faithfully, sown carefully reaped diligently has never "bucked bread" and seed something for profit. In a grain belt which is roughly 850 miles long and 450 to 500 miles wide it is not possible to hope for ideal conditions over the entire area every year, but no wheat growing country in the world has a finer record for uniform production than the Canadian West.

CAMROSE (From The Canadian)

The gathering of the C.N.R. contractors, surveyors and foremen in Camrose in the early part of this week has given rise to reports of actual construction to commence as soon as possible on the C.N.R. line southeast of Camrose.

The fall terms of the Camrose Lutheran College will begin October 21. This delay, in opening the school, is due to unexpected delay in getting certain lines of machinery. Hon. C. R. Mitchell, minister of public works, arrived in Camrose on Saturday last to decide on one of the two titles that had been selected as suitable for the location of the provincial normal school.

Mr. Mitchell, in company with Geo. P. Smith, M.P.P., and R. D. Fleming, chairman of the School Board, drove over the respective properties, and had no difficulty in deciding that the most desirable situation, taking the elevation of the land and the future growth of the town into consideration, was on the property which crowns the hill on Mount Pleasant subdivision. This gives a beautiful view of the valley and enables the property with the handsome building which will occupy it to be shown to the best advantage. The location is blocks S and E, which was owned by W. J. MacNamara, of Edmonton. The price is reported to be $16,000.

One loves because—and if this does not answer the question you can guess again.

That Edmonton Exhibition was sure some kind of a show. Edmonton ought to be proud of the fine exhibition she put up. A city many times the size of Edmonton could not put up the same article as the same northern city put up and the whole caboodle of us should be proud of it as at the present time Edmonton's interests are our interests to a large extent.

At good they get in that city in the way of industries and settlers is going to help Wetaskiwin in the long run. Maybe some day if you folks will wake up and help a little instead of doing a whole lot of talking we will be able to put up a show. If not as good will be pretty darn close.

The only way you can do this is to alight together and boost. Dig down in your old rock and bring out a few shelds and spend it for the benefit of Wetaskiwin. It will come back to you manifold.

"Jas. Brackenridge" of Edmonton was renewing acquaintances in the city the fore part of the week.

W. A. Macfarlane, manager of the Driad Hotel, was confined to his room for several days of the past week through illness. He is now convalescing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Rubbra went to Edmonton on Tuesday afternoon, where they will visit friends. Mr. Rubbra will also attend to some business matters.

W. S. Douglas returned last week from a two weeks' vacation spent at different cities on the coast. He reports having had a most enjoyable outing. He also intended taking a trip down the Arrowhead Lakes, but time would not permit.

A very severe storm visited this section of the country Monday night last. The rain came down in torrents, accompanied by a strong wind. This with the rain that has fallen since that time, has made the roads almost impassable while it is impossible to do any work in the fields. Apart from the levelling of the grain fields, no damage has been done to the crops in this vicinity so far this year.

Clark Burnay, the local ball-player, while boarding the freight train Tuesday night, was severely injured by being struck by a trunk on the platform as the train was moving. His suit case was knocked under the wheels and left in two pieces and he had a very narrow escape from the same fate.—Representative.

The team of horses belonging to M. Grutskich were being extensively advertised for between here and Calgary, were discovered in the hands of Wetaskiwin, the chief of police of Wetaskiwin having telephoned the Representative on Saturday stating that a team there answering to the description. Mr. Grutskich went to Wetaskiwin on Monday evening and the horses, having to pay $15.00 fees, the team having been in the pound for twenty days.—Representative.

L. Ned Bull, of Haskins' Coulemer, with a very unfortunate accident last Thursday. In attempting to start his gasoline tractor, it "back-fired" so unexpectedly that it caught him and as a consequence, his left arm-bone was split. Dr. H. S. Sherreds attended to the injury and reports Mr. Bull doing well, but he will be laid up for a few weeks.—Press.

H. G. Morrison returned the first of the week from a first vacation spent at Calgary and Banff. At the former place he was one of more than two hundred contestants in the Provincial tennis tournament and had the honor of remaining in the game until the finish, and bringing home one of the prizes. At Banff he had a most enjoyable time, one of the chief features being trout fishing. On the way home from the fishing excursion on one occasion his party had the "extreme felicity" of seeing their narrow mountain trail crusted by a real grizzly bear and not a gun in the party—but Bruin took the hint and walked away.—Press.

Mr. W. E. D. McTaggart, superintendent of the Buffalo Park at Watnwright, a G.T.P. division point, reports that at least 250 buffalo calves have been added to the herd this year, increasing the number of animals in the reserve to nearly 1,200. The increase in the number of calves over last year is estimated at 25 per cent, while the death rate has been remarkably low. All of the buffalo are in a very healthy condition and are becoming exceedingly tame. On driving through the park, in fact they refuse to remove from the trail so that it is necessary to drive a round them. The report states however, that several have recently given indications of an ugly disposition though this is attributed to the fact that the animals are now mating.

The return of Hon. R. L. Borden to Ottawa from England, will be celebrated by a banquet which will be held in the Grand Trunk's hotel, the "Chateau Laurier," on Sept. 10th. It is understood that all the cabinet ministers will be present and that the function is likely to be one of the most brilliant of its kind that the Capital has ever seen.

DEMISE OF MRS. OHMAN

The friends of Mrs. Ohman, beloved wife of Rev. A. H. Ohman, who has been a resident near X's, who has been for the past eight years, were surprised on Wednesday last to learn that she had passed to the great beyond the previous day. Deceased had not been feeling well for some time, but notwithstanding this, she came quickly. She was aged 59 years and 6 months, and leaves a sorrowing husband, two daughters and one son, all grown up. Rev. Ohman was absent at the time being at Duluth, Minn. He was at once informed by wire of the sad incident, but he could not reach here until Monday, the 28th inst., just in time to attend the service which was held at the Swedish Baptist church. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in the community, a host of friends of the deceased being present to pay their last tributes of respect to the departed.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED HIM

Mr. W. H. Riley, Russell, Sask., writes: "It is with the greatest pleasure that I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all suffering with rheumatism. I was so bad with this terrible disease, I was unable to get up from my bed for four months, and nothing seemed to relieve me until a friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. I had my doubts about them, but was so desperate I would try anything suggested to me. After taking half a box I was able to get up, and after taking two boxes could get around quite well. After taking six boxes I was completely cured, and able to work for the first time in five months, and have not had a touch of rheumatism since. Anyone who saw me then would not know me now, so I am so strong and active since taking your valuable medicine."

The Crop Reports

It might now be said that the harvest season is in full swing. Fully nine-tenths of those who have wheat to harvest are now engaged in the work. At the end of this week reports indicate that an immense quantity is already in sheaf. So far the harvesting season has been marked with uniform weather throughout the entire country. There have been only a few showers, and these have been confined to small and isolated sections. A review of conditions of the past week leads to the conclusion that, as harvesting weather, it has been much above the average. A continuation of similar weather for the next two weeks will mean the assurance of an even greater crop than has been deemed possible a month ago followed by the natural impetus to business commerce in all lines.

The quality of the grain is far higher than last year and considerably above the average of other years. Reports from various reliable sources state that the sample is the cleanest seen for years—that there is no smut, no rust and none of the fungus which did so much damage in Manitoba last year. The grain is not exceptionally heavy, but, as already stated, remarkably high in quality.

Reports are to hand of hail in some portions of the prairie country, but damage from this source is confined to small areas. So far there has been no damage from any cause reported of sufficient magnitude and scope to have any material effect upon the grand total, which still seems to have a tendency to exceed estimates rather than to fall short.

Many thousands of farm laborers have been brought to the West during the past ten days. The demand for help is much greater than the supply but so far the situation is more favorable in this respect than is generally the case. Commercial.

FRANK BOUDA

BRIEF SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF THE LATE GENERAL BOOTH

Rev. William Booth, commander and chief of the Salvation Army of the world and director of its social institutions for destitute, various and criminal classes was born in Nottingham, England, April 19, 1829. Died Aug. 28, 1912.

At an early age he was placed under a private theological tutor from the Methodist New Connection church, London, and at the age of 15 years, young Booth began to preach in the open air at Nottingham. He entered the ministry in 1853 and after acting in the capacity of travelling evangelist on appointment by the Conference of the Methodist New Connection church he was required to settle to their ordinary circuit work.

To this he submitted for some years but eventually in 1861, he resigned in order to apply himself to evangelistic labor. While travelling through London he was struck with the deplorable condition of the eastern portion of its population and commenced, on July 5, 1865, special efforts in their behalf.

Beginning of Army

The first Salvation Army meeting was held in the home of the General himself. After having seen the east side of London with its seething mass of down-trodden humanity and observing the homeless men and women - he went home one night to his wife and family, and declared to them that henceforth he would consecrate himself and them to the work of saving and helping this seemingly forsaken mass of humanity. Together they knelt in prayer to ask God's guidance on the work that had devoted themselves to, and that, the General declared, was the first Salvation Army meeting.

In a disused burying ground on Mile End Road he later pitched an old tent. This he called the "Christian Mission," and the tent was his tabernacle.

Here a motley crowd of Whitechapelers drifted in to hear the gospel the very first night he preached, partially led by curiosity and partly to while away the time. The world had never seen such a "congregation" before. It was just a mass of wreckage and driftwood of humanity.

From this on he led nightly meetings, and from this starting-point, day by day, with whom he worked and who worked with him parade the streets singing hymns, preaching and praying. Spurgeon let by a shaft at this "fantasy," saying that his methods brought religion into contempt. But the work progressed and spread itself until it developed into the Salvation Army, which has since grown until it now contains 873 corps, circles and societies established in 57 countries and colonies with about 21,303 officers and men and women employed in departmental work.

Help to The Fallen

In connection with this General Booth has organized a great system for the benefit of the submerged, vicious and criminal classes, which has now over 300 social institutions. The old general believed in a personal devil and a sure-enough hell but he balked at the brimstone. He always avoided disputes about religion.

Besides being a leader of international repute he also acquired a far-famed reputation as an author. He is the author of Orders and Regulations for soldiers and Officers Lettters to My Soldiers, Religion Visions, In Darkest England and the Way Out and numerous other books and pamphlets.

General Booth's only form of recreation, and that it is said that he worked as hard on sea as he did on land was travelling. He has visited the United States and Canada five times, Australasia and South Africa, three times, India, twice, Japan, once and almost every country in Europe several times.

NEW ACT TO DEAL WITH CRIMINALS

Edmonton, Aug. 24.-Alberta the province which will come into operation in the province of Canada is the second, Manitoba being the first, to comply with the conditions of the Dominion act, respecting juvenile delinquencies which will come into operation as soon as possible after the order-in-council and the certificate of the provincial attorney general are entered at Ottawa. Authorities on the subject of child training, including Judge Lindsay of Denver, Judge Mac of Chicago and Judge Adams of Cleveland, declare this will comply with the best sense of acts for the rescue and protection of children in force anywhere on the American continent.

The act which was introduced into the Dominion parliament through the efforts of W.L. Scott, a barrister at Ottawa, and assented to in July, 1908, extends the principles that have been applied to the delinquent and neglected child in Alberta since adoption of the Children's Protection act, passed by the provincial legislature.

The principle of the Dominion act fully sets forth the spirit of criminal legislation in the interest of children, as follows:

"It is inexpedient that youthful offenders should be classed or dealt with as ordinary criminals, the welfare of the community demanding that they should, on the contrary be guarded against 'association' with crime and criminals, and that they be subjected to such care, treatment and control as will tend to check their evil tendencies and to strengthen their better instincts."

"Cholera Infantum"

THE SUMMER COMPLAINT OF INFANTS

Cholera infantum begins with a profuse diarrhoea, the stomach becomes irritated and in many cases vomiting and purging set in. The child rapidly loses flesh, and is soon reduced to great languor and prostration.

Cholera infantum can be quickly cured by the use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Mrs. David A. Cleveland, Apple River, N.S., writes:—"Last September my little boy, four years old, and little girl, two years old, were taken one afternoon with vomiting spells, and in a few hours they had cholera infantum. I had Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the house, and commenced using it. The cholera got so bad the next day, they passed nothing but blood. I kept on using the medicine, and in a few days they were cured. I always keep a bottle in the house, as I don't think there is anything better for summer complaint than Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry."

Some dealers may try to sell you something else, but for the good of your child's health, insist on having "Dr. Fowler's." It has been on the market for over sixty years, so you are not using a new and untried remedy. Price 35 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Mr. Sid Edwards, of Wetaskiwin, visited friends at Leduc last week.

Thrice now have some of Leduc baseball players had a time getting home from Wetaskiwin. Two years ago coming from Camrose the regular night train would not wait ten minutes for the special to get in and a ride on the way freight was the only alternative to staying in Wetaskiwin all night. Owing to a freight wreck last Friday the players could not get home until the next day and again Tuesday night owing to the same cause it was early morning before Leduc was reached.—Representative.

A most unusual incident happened in police circles one day last week. Chief James was informed that a water proof coat and suit case had been stolen from a traveller who was a guest of one of the local hoteliers. After receiving a description of a man who was supposed to have taken the articles, the chief started his investigation, and it was not long before he discovered the suit case, and a few minutes later saw the man walking down street wearing the overcoat. He was instantly accosted and escorted over to the chief's office, where the owner identified the goods as his entire strangers. The owner declined to lay an information, as it was found that they were travelling for the same firm and both belonged to the Commercial Travellers Association, and other fraternal societies.
